

Douglass Climbing Center at Camp Workcoeman

The new Douglass Climbing Center at Camp Workcoeman is now available to your unit for a half-day or full-day climbing experience during the short-term camping season. Is your unit looking to provide a climbing experience to your Scouts? Why not consider utilizing Camp Workwoeman's new climbing facility.

The Douglass Climbing Center, located in New Hartford, CT, offers an exciting outdoor climbing adventure. Qualified instructors will lead your group through climbing activities promoting skills essential for everyone to challenge themselves and have a great time doing it.

The Climbing Center can be reserved from September to June (weather permitting). Scouts of any age can participate in this climbing program.

The fee for a 3-hour session (half-day) is $25 per Scout. For a 6-hour session (full-day) the fee is $35 per Scout.

To schedule a date and time, contact Paul McClain
(860) 212-3645 or email phmcc@cox.net

